Subject: WIN a unique competition for small community projects!

Importance: High

My colleague here at Media Trust – Amanuel Woldesus – suggested I contact you to let you know of a unique competition we (Community Channel) are running for small projects that make an impact in their community. You might know of some good ones who could apply or who you would like to nominate. The competition closes on Wed 14 October.

The prize is a special tailor-made short film (see example of a Fran Monks film below) and selected media training.

Here is some information and a link which takes you to the 'entry' information:

“Community Channel is running a competition to find a groundbreaking small project that makes a BIG difference in its local community. We want to hear from you if you run - or want to nominate - a project that:

- is innovative and inspiring
- makes a positive and proven impact on the local community or society at large
- is small - run by one person or a small team
- has been running for at least one year
- is a project in Great Britain

Enter our competition and WIN a film of your project made by Fran Monks and broadcast on Community Channel. Competition closes 14 October”

It would be great if you could circulate this to people or projects you know – or nominate one yourself! It's the final week of the competition. Please let me know if you need any further information.

Many thanks in advance
