

HACVS E-bulletin Number 28

You will see that we have decided to number our e-bulletins rather than date each one. This is to facilitate coordination between the circulation of the e-mail and posting the e-bulletin on the website.

(1) Tell us what you've been doing! (2) NE CsVS Training in November

Dear members,

- 1 The next edition of the HACVS Newsletter will be issued in mid December and we want to use it as a way of promoting some of the many good works carried out by the Voluntary and Community Sector within the Horsham District. It's sad but true that much of the work carried out by our sector is invisible to much of the community and at times goes unrecognised in consequence, which is particularly unfortunate in the current climate of constraints on budgets and stressed funders. We are therefore asking our members and partners to help us to shed some light on things by telling us about the practical benefits of the work they have been doing over the last year. We would like to hear from you as soon as possible, no later than 30th November, about your activities, with particular emphasis on those practical benefits and outcomes delivered and what the effect of their unavailability would have been.

It may be difficult but please limit your story to one side of A4 Arial 14 font.

- 2 The latest schedule of courses available from the North East CsVS Training Group has just been published and two early offerings will be held at our offices in Lavinia House in Horsham. These were mentioned in e-bulletin number 25:

Tuesday 17th November, 9.30–16.30 Lone Working – aimed at ensuring the safety of anyone who works on their own, whether office based or out in the community. Cost - £30

Tuesday 1st December, 9.30-13.00 What to do if you're worried a child is being abused – this course aims to help you develop an awareness of, and the ability to act on, concerns about the safety and welfare of children and young people. Cost–Free of charge

More information about these and other courses available, together with booking instructions are available on our website www.hacvs.org/Training.htm or by following this link
