

E-bulletin December 4th 2008

- (1) District's Young Speak Out (2) Make Your mark with a Tenner!
(3) Opportunity for Young People

Dear members,

- 1 District's young speak out: please find a news release from Horsham District Council.

- 2 Dragons' Den star and Bebo founders put their faith - and cash - in UK's budding young entrepreneurs! Make Your Mark with a Tenner will take place throughout February 2009 and will be open to at least 20,000 young people aged 19 and under from schools, colleges and youth groups across the UK.
Twenty thousand young people will each be given a £10 loan and challenged to see what profit and social impact they can achieve in one month. Once the £10 loans have been returned, participants will be able to decide what to do with their profits - use them to develop their idea further, invest them in a good cause, or keep them.
Prizes will be awarded for individuals or teams with the most profit, the greatest social impact and for ventures in special categories including Sport and Online.
Here is the Application Form ; send completed forms to tenner@makeyourmark.org.uk
Closing date: Friday 12 December

- 3 Do you know someone who belongs to a club? Do they want to make films about issues that matter to them and their community? Do they want to seize this once in a lifetime opportunity?!
BOOM! is working with MTV and v to provide free training, resources and equipment and refund travel. The club will need to send two 16-25 year olds willing to give up their time. They will get a training pack, video camera, BOOM! t-shirts and a 19" IMAC upon finishing training to create their films on.
Films will be uploaded via www.MTV.co.uk/boom and could be chosen to air on the MTV network! The best films will be put forward for BOOM! awards.
The final round of training is in February/March '09, so get your application in before then! For more info or if they are unsure about whether their club is eligible, call 0116 27556767 or email boomenquiries@clubsforyoungpeople.org.uk
This is the last chance to get involved!

Many thanks –
Janet
